

To whom it may concern,

This letter is to recommend to you Brendan Prout.

Over the 25+ years as a Lead Worshipper, I have had the opportunity to work with many Worship Leaders, sharing the platform with some, mentoring many, and sitting under their leadership, worshipping with them. Brendan Prout has been one of those leaders.

Brendan is not only a gifted Worship Leader, he is a Worship Pastor. He understands ministry. He pours his life into his team that then pours themselves into the body they serve. He is not just concerned about musical excellence (which he is) but in the spiritual health of his team. Whether it is a vocalist, instrumentalist or technical person, his goal is to invest in their skill set as well as their ongoing relationship with Christ. And he will do that by all means available to him. I love watching him with his team. He is also sensitive to the Holy Spirit's leading constantly refining what it is to be a known as a Lead Worshipper.

I believe that Brendan Prout has been called to be a Worship Leader. He will be an asset to any body that he serves.

Blessings
